Clerical and secretarial rates of pay

The Clerks – Private Sector Award applies to parish staff working in clerical and secretarial roles.

The minimum weekly wages clause in this Award has been adjusted to reflect the recent decision by the Fair Work Commission to increase all modern award wages by 4.6 percent rounded to the nearest ten cents. Proportionate rate increases apply to hourly minimum wages. Attachment 1 provides the schedule of new pay rates.

The increases apply from the first pay period commencing on or after 1 July 2022.

Please note: If you are currently paying above award rates, you may choose to absorb this increase into the employee's existing pay rate. It is also important when applying award rates that staff are classified at the appropriate classification level – please use the guide provided in Attachment 2.

For employee's who are currently paid over the award rate, this is not an opportunity to reduce the current rates of pay. Pay rates can, however, remain on hold until they are in line with the award rate.

Employers need to be aware that the following penalty rate provisions apply to employees covered by that Award.

- (a) All work performed by an employee, other than a casual, outside the hours of 7.00 am and 7.00 pm Monday to Friday and on Saturday which is not overtime must be paid at the rate of 120% of the relevant minimum wage.
- (b) All work performed by an employee, other than a casual, on Sunday which is not overtime must be paid at the rate of 150% of the relevant minimum wage.
- (c) All work performed by a casual employee outside the hours of 7.00 am and 7.00 pm Monday to Friday and on Saturday which is not overtime must be paid at the rate of 145% of the relevant minimum wage.
- (d) All work performed by a casual employee on Sunday which is not overtime must be paid at the rate of 175% of the relevant minimum wage.
- (e) All work performed by an employee on a public holiday is to be paid at the rate of 250% of the relevant minimum wage.

CLERKS – PRIVATE SECTOR AWARD CLASSIFICATION LEVEL GUIDE

The classification criteria in this Schedule provide guidelines to determine the appropriate classification level of employees covered by this award. In determining that level, consideration must be given to both the characteristics and typical duties and skills of the level.

However, the characteristics are the primary guide to classification as they indicate the level of basic knowledge, comprehension of issues, problems and procedures required and the level of supervision or accountability of the position. The totality of the characteristics must be read as a whole to obtain a clear understanding of the essential features of any particular level and the competency required.

Classification	Description
